

KUNJUNG – words to do with ‘visit’

* Orang dari Jepang sering berkunjung ke pulau itu.

People from Japan often visit (to) that island.

* Orang dari Jepang sering mengunjungi pulau itu.

People from Japan often visit that island.

* Pulau itu sering dikunjungi orang dari Jepang.

That island is often visited by people from Japan.

* Orang tua saya akan mengunjungi mereka.

My parents will visit them.

* Mereka akan dikunjungi orang tua saya.

They will be visited by my parents.

* Sekolah kami terpaksa membatalkan kunjungan ke kota itu.

Our school was forced to cancel its visit to that city.

* Jumlah pengunjung ke Kebun Raya itu menurun.

The number of visitors to the Botanical Gardens declined.

Notes

* berkunjung (v) [+ ke + PLACE]: to visit

[Some speakers also use the construction “berkunjung ke” for visiting a person, e.g., “berkunjung ke keluarga”, but that structure is often regarded as incorrect.]

* mengunjungi (v): to visit (a place), to visit (a person)

[You can say either ‘mengunjungi’ or “berkunjung ke” to talk about visiting a place: they mean the same thing. For instance, “berkunjung ke pulau itu.” or “mengunjungi pulau itu.”]

* kunjungan (n): a visit

* pengunjung (n): a visitor. [a ‘pengunjung’ does the action of ‘mengunjungi’.]

Practice. Say it in Indonesian. For each word in bold use a KUNJUNG word. (Be ready to choose between mengunjungi and dikunjungi as needed.)

1. I would like to visit the Middle East.

Saya ingin berkunjung ke (or ‘mengunjungi’) Timur Tengah.

2. Visitors to the art gallery are forbidden to take photographs. [with ‘museum’]

Pengunjung ke museum seni itu dilarang mengambil foto.

3. They received a sudden visit from the Section Head. [with ‘mendadak’, ‘Seksi’]

Mereka menerima kunjungan mendadak dari Kepala Seksi.

4. This morning we were visited by my older sister’s family.

Tadi pagi kami dikunjungi keluarga kakak saya.

5. S/he once visited the south coast.

Dia pernah berkunjung ke (or ‘mengunjungi’) pantai selatan.

6. There are several ways to attract visitors to a new store.

Ada beberapa cara untuk menarik pengunjung ke toko baru.

7. I think Bangkok is the city that is most visited by tourists.

Saya kira Bangkok adalah kota yang paling banyak dikunjungi wisatawan.

8. They must obtain a Visit Visa to Indonesia (i.e., a visa for a visit).

Mereka harus mendapatkan Visa Kunjungan ke Indonesia.

9. We will visit friends there.

Kami akan mengunjungi teman di sana.

10. Our class made a visit to the National Museum. [with ‘mengadakan’]

Kelas kami mengadakan kunjungan ke Museum Nasional.

11. We rarely visit tourist attractions. [with ‘obyek’]

Kami jarang berkunjung ke (or ‘mengunjungi’) obyek wisata.

12. Are you planning to visit them in Padang? [literally: ‘Is there a plan to ...?']

Ada rencana untuk mengunjungi mereka di Padang?

13. His task is to serve visitors to the library. [with ‘melayani’]

Tugasnya adalah untuk melayani pengunjung ke perpustakaan.

14. That village is rarely visited by outsiders.

Desa itu jarang dikunjungi orang luar.